STATE QUINTET IN RARE FORM

PARKERSBURG HIGH WINS FROM LOCALS

In Fast and Exciting Game Played at Parkersburg Saturday Night.

PARKERSBURG, Feb. 12.—Playing a hard fought game against a team that greatly outweighed it, the Washington Irving high school basketball team went down to defeat at the hands of the Parkersburg high school five in the fastest and most interesting game played on the Parkersburg floor this season by a score of 33 to 21.

The Clarksburg boys took the lead early in the game and for the first twelve minutes the game was fast and furious; first one team leading and then the other. At this stage of the game the score was 11 to 16 in favor of the Clarksburg boys. In the last few minutes of the first half the locals forged ahead and at the finish of the half had a nine point lead on the visitors.

At the start of the second half the Clarksburg boys again showed fight and the game was real interesting for a few minutes but the locals again began to crawl away from the visitors and when the referee's whistle ended the battle they had a thirteen point lead.

The entire local team played its exceptionally good game, the floor work, passing and shooting being the best seen this season.

Signing Articles for the Big Fight March 8 Between Jess Willard and Frank Moran

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The articles of agreement for the ten-round bout between Jess Willard and Frank Moran were signed here with the usual stage setting. The only notable not on hand was Jess Willard himself, who was represented by his manager, Tom Jones. Two sets of agreements were signed, one being between Jones and Willard and Rickard and McCracken, the other between Dorgan and Moran and Rickard and McCracken.

Both sets of articles provide for a ten-round no decision boxing contest to be governed by the rules and regulations of the New York State Boxing Commission and to be held at Madison Square Garden on the night of March 8, 1916. Willard's share of the purse is to be $40,000, and he is to receive fifty-one per cent of the receipts from moving pictures and the same per cent for any revenues derived from advertising signs that may be displayed at the ringside. Moran is to receive $20,000 and thirty per cent of the moving picture and advertising receipts.

It is understood that Willard received a bonus of $7,500 and Moran a bonus of $2,500 for signing, but this was on the side and did not appear in the agreements. Rickard posted $10,000 and Jones $5,000 to guarantee performance of the contract. For the same purpose McCracken posted $5,000 and Dorgan $2,500. This forfeit money was made larger in the case of Willard on account of his being the champion.

NEW NATIONAL AMATEUR BASEBALL BODY FORMED

At Louisville, When Acting President Towne Rules Proxies Could Not Be Voted.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 12.—A new national amateur baseball organization came into existence here today after delegates to the annual meeting of the National Amateur Baseball Association of America had split into two factions at the morning session. The new body, styling itself the National Amateur Baseball Federation, elected C. E. Townsend, of Cleveland, president. It begins operations with a membership of nine cities. Loyal members of the old body at the same time held a meeting in a room adjoining that in which the federation was born, continued under the name of the National Amateur Baseball Association of America, and elected Ralston Gross, of Indianapolis, temporary president, and E. C. Seaton, of Chicago, was elected secretary-treasurer. Benjamin Brumleve, of Louisville, was elected first vice president, and J. A. Jackel, of Detroit, second vice president. Other officers installed by the federation were: C. W. Sturr, Cincinnati, first vice president; Randowe Abeken, St. Louis, second vice president, and Thomas Nokes, Johnstown, Pa., secretary-treasurer.

Today's rupture in relations occurred when certain members who later aligned themselves with the old association disagreed with the ruling of Mr. Towne, who, in his capacity of vice president, assumed the chair in the absence of President Patterson, of Chicago. When Mr. Towne decided that proxies could not be voted and that delegates here had to pay for admission into the association before they could vote, several members withdrew.

When the two meetings had adjourned late today none of the business of the meeting of the National Amateur Baseball Association of America had been transacted. From the session a new delineation of the amateur player had been expected.

"CHATTERING"

By Coaches on Baseball Field is Condemned by Riggs of Howard University.

In his annual report on sport at Harvard University, Dean L. B. R. Briggs, chairman of the committee on the regulation of athletic sports, takes occasion to refer to the practice of "chattering" by college baseball players. Dean Briggs states:

"Bad manners on the baseball field and tactics that in some sports would be condemned as unsportsmanlike are still regarded by students and the general public as part of the game, and of these bad manners Harvard teams, though in general clean players, are not wholly free. The rule which cuts the players off from the advice of coaches and graduates throughout the game makes it impossible to call down an offending man until the game is over. In the last few years the talk of players on the ball field has been much less frequent and objectionable. Nobody would exact perfect silence or forbid the captain the genuine encouragement of his men. Yet even now a large part of what the players say results from deliberate adoption of a technical vocabulary, cheap and mean."

GEORGETOWN TEAM TRIMS METHODISTS

In a Fast and Snappy Played Game at Washington by Score of 35 to 21.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 12.—In a well played and exciting contest West Virginia Wesleyan lost to Georgetown University here tonight by the score of 35 to 21. Georgetown was in the lead almost from the start, but Wesleyan kept up her snappy work throughout the contest and at no time did the Blue and White have an opportunity to let up.

Shumaker, Morrison, Heavner and Jacobs did most of the heavy work for Wesleyan, though Ward and Daniel played well on the defense. Shumaker and Heavner excelled in shooting all their baskets were of the sensational order. Georgetown won through superior floor work and better eyes for the basket on long distant shots, most of their field goals being the result of accurate tosses from the middle of the floor.

Wesleyan excelled at working the ball down the floor and time after time they broke up the Georgetown plays and carried the ball down to their goal, only to miss comparatively easy shots. At team work Wesleyan showed to advantage and at times its work was sensational in this respect. Jacobs and Morrison played an exceptional floor game for Wesleyan. The game was very clean throughout in spite of the fact that last year Wesleyan forfeited to Georgetown here on account of alleged rough play and poor officiating. Wesleyan had but one personal foul called on the entire number of players.
